

Short Film submissions are now being accepted for the Connecticut Cinematic Celebration!

Deadline October 5.

Shorts welcome for submission.

Trailers for new, locally made feature films may also be submitted.

Last year's celebration and event was a success, and this year we're back for more!

The 2nd Connecticut Cinematic Celebration will be held Saturday November 5, 2011. This event honors all Connecticut filmmakers and the local film industry. Films of various genres and skill levels will be celebrated. Short films that have been written, produced, or shot in Connecticut are welcome for submission. Due to time constraints, in lieu of full length feature films, trailers for new features may be submitted.

Please contact Chi at 860-295-0433 for more details on submissions or information.

Shorts! – Saturday, November 5th – to be held at the Cinema at Real Art Ways

- Film submission deadline: October 5.
- As the event is free, open to the public and family friendly, we ask that all films be appropriate for a wide range of audiences.
- Actual event will be held the morning of Saturday, November 5th.
- All filmmakers submitting a film should be able to attend the event on November 5th so that they can mingle with attendees (if time in the schedule allows, filmmakers will be encouraged to network and discuss their films).
- Most film types can be shown at the cinema, however, please contact us with your format verify that it is useable.
- This event will be held during the two-week series of events for the 22nd Annual Open Studio Hartford, an event that celebrates the arts in all forms.
- Film celebration is scheduled to be announced in the 10,000 copy brochure for Open Studio Hartford and on their web site.
- We are working on a possible ad or listing in the Hartford Advocate, tbd...
- Press releases on the event and listing all accepted films will be sent out to Connecticut newspapers and radio stations, prior to the event.
- All films will be listed on a FaceBook Page and event page for you to link to. We encourage you to work with us to get the word out about this event as much as possible!
- The Connecticut Cinematic Celebration is an event created by Timothy Kulig from Ambient Music Group, Chi LaBossiere Kulig from Chi Consulting, and with assistance from several film organizations. Each year the group seeks out new collaborations with film organizations and filmmakers, with the objective of working together to pay tribute to, and to bring together, the local film industry. Last year SECT, FIM, and several other film groups participated.
- To submit your film, or for organizations to become involved with the celebration, please contact Chi at: 860-295-0433, 860-983-3767, or chi@chicreativeconsulting.com.
